LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Expressing gratitude is a sign of a loving heart. When we have received a gracious gesture, the appreciation experienced forms a bond between the giver and receiver. This can only happen when abundance and kind gestures are seen as gifts and not something to which we are entitled. The power of gratitude is more profound when we realize all that we are and all we are given do not have a human source but are of God. Walking around believing that our glass is only half full leaves us always wanting more. We are never satisfied. We become nothing more than entitled pursuers of whatever we can get. Instead, the one who is eager to count their blessings and appreciate the wonder and beauty of the gift of life itself is at peace. Before they take another step or venture off on another journey, they bow in gratitude to the presence of God himself. They are most keenly aware that all would cease to be without God.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint John XIII was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli on November 25, 1881, in a small village in Italy. He was ordained in 1904 and later earned a doctorate in canon law. During World War I he served as a stretcher-bearer and chaplain for the Italian army. Beginning in 1925 he served as a Vatican diplomat, first in Bulgaria, then in Greece and Turkey. From 1935 through the Second World War he helped save thousands of Jewish people. In 1944 he was named papal nuncio to France. He was named cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953. A quiet pastoral life passing into retirement, however, was not in God's plan for the saint.

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was elected Pope in 1958 and took the name John. His papacy was short, but full of action. He transformed the Vatican, calling for openness, a spirit of ecumenism, and the setting aside of politics. He called the Second Vatican Council in the fall of 1962, the first meeting of its kind in almost a century, setting the agenda to work for the spiritual regeneration of the Church. His efforts changed the face of the Catholic Church. At the same time worked diligently and publicly to ease tensions during the Cuban missile crisis, pleading with leaders for the end of the Cold War.

Saint John XXIII's kindness, sense of pastoral care, and works of reconciliation and peacemaking made him beloved not only to Catholics but to people around the world. He died on June 3, 1963. He was beatified in 2000 by St. John Paul II, and canonized by Pope Francis in 2014.

THE CATHOLIC PATH ON DEMAND

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.

Hispanic Heritage Month

Kindergarten students got into the spirit of Hispanic Heritage Month by creating beautiful Sarape blankets.

Probably the most common and popular style of Mexican blanket, the Sarape is iconically Mexican. The Sarape blanket is a colorful striped blanket available in a huge range of colors. Each blanket consists of a main thick striped color with multiple supporting striped colors of various sizes. The students measured, cut and glued pieces of multi-colored construction paper to a larger piece of paper to make their own blankets.

Just take a look at how colorful and festive the blankets turned out...can you say FIESTA!!

Prayer Squares

Prayer Squares are tangible symbols of prayers that are said for a person in need. The layers of these 18" x 18" quilted squares are tied together and, as each knot is tied, a silent prayer is said for the recipient. To date, the Prayer Squares Ministry of St. Rose of Lima's Council of Catholic Women has created and given over 300 prayer squares to individuals who live locally, nationally and internationally.

Please contact Marie Mennes at 305-772-2205 to request a prayer square be made for someone you know who is in need of the additional prayers and comfort these quilted squares provide.
